About This Game

Overload is a new six-degree-of-freedom shooter from the creators of Descent. It is currently in Early Access and will be released in full on May 31, 2018. This Playable Teaser gives a taste of game including one single-player-style level and two Challenge Mode levels. Earlier versions of this demo were released in March 2016 and March 2017. Features included in the version are essentially the same as they will be in the full version.

Overload is an intense combat game that takes place in a full-3D world. The full game will feature:

- Single-player story campaign with 15+ FULL-SIZE atmospheric levels
- Upgradeable player ship and 12+ weapons with multiple upgrade options
- More than a dozen unique robots with multiple variants, and 3 massive bosses
 - Story by the writer of FREESPACE 2, plus pulse-pounding soundtrack
 - Multiplayer, including free-for-all and team modes
- Expanded Challenge Mode with Countdown variant, lots of levels, and online leaderboards
- Easy-to-use custom Level Editor (post-release) so you can build and share levels

This demo contains a training level, a sample single-player "destroy the reactor" level, and two Challenge Mode levels that let you test your skills against a horde of enemies.

Overload is available now via Steam Early Access. If you like the demo, check out the full version!

3. see "normal" option
4. think "flee" is a game mode.
5. click "flee"
6. game quits.

11V10 would flee again.. I want say its alot better game then lux it self this is really good step up what it needs thought is better UI and I dont know where these 150 maps are other then the maps people made them selfs.

it really didnt come with no 100 maps and maps you see in screen shoots are maps you can download and this is also issue with lux delux..

I am not sure if lux delux maps work on lux alliance.. and the UI or editor for making maps is pretty ehh honestly it could be alot better the drawing tool really sucks it should been more of a painter tool then line drawing tool with diff size brushes.

but other whys its decent game.. i for one can say this game is really good, i have played a few maps and had a good 20 + hours play time before i made this, i think it needs a little more work everything is sweet just needs a polish on the edges really good game 5 stars. Dark story about a girl who wants to live and a man who wants to die.

The setting is pseudo-Europe of Medieval times with crusades. Touching but gothic and in some parts violent story, memorable music and atmospheric but okayish art. I'm not a big fan of minimalistic designs in visual novels but very good writing won my heart.

Johann (male main character's) plotline is one hell of an emotional rollercoaster.

P.S. don't mind 0 mins timer, the story is around 3-4 hours.
